

MEMBERSHIP POLICY AT THE LASZLO INSTITUTE OF NEW PARADIGM RESEARCH STATUTE

ART 3

- A member can be either an individual or a non-profit organisation
- A potential member has to send to the Association the following information
  - Identification and contact information (first-last name, fiscal code, address, birth place-date, email, phone number)
  - Declaration that they accept the bylaws fully
  - Declaration how he/she will contribute to the Association activities according to his/her competence and to be described in detail in a Curriculum Vitae. This means that the Executive Committee has the responsibility to evaluate the candidate
- The Executive Committee will decide whether to accept or not the candidature which will be communicated to the candidate accordingly, and write such decision in the association register.

ART 4 – Rights and Obligations

Rights

- Can be elected and participate to elect the Executive Committee members
- Will be informed about all the Association activities
- Attend the Association meetings
- Participate at all Association initiatives
- Participate at the Association activities program definition and approval
- To be reimbursed in case of expenses paid for (and approved by) the Association
- Review the Association documents

Obligations

- Respect the bylaws and the “Internal Regulation” rules
- Carry out the activities for the Association free of charge and voluntarily
- Pay yearly membership fee according to the rules

ART 5 – membership cancellation

- In case the member doesn't respect the bylaws and the Internal Regulation rules
- In case the member damages the association (including its reputation)
- In case the member doesn't pay the fee

For more information please contact info@thelaszloinstitute.com